Gen. S. H. Manning's speech at the third district congressional convention, on Thursday last is very highly spoken of by all who heard him. His remarks created great excitement in that body, and he was enthusiastically cheered several times, to such an extent that he had to suspend his remarks for the excitement to abate. The General is naturally a very good debater, but on the occasion above referred to, he was in excellent trim, and did great credit to himself.

The Bladen county Republican committee held a meeting Thursday evening last and elected Hon. William T. Pridgen chairman, and Solomon T. Evans secretary. Both of these selections are very good, and we are glad to learn the condition of the Republican party was never better than at present; but under the leadership of such men as Pridgen, Newell, Sikes, Singletary, Evans, McDonald and Wilkins, the party is bound to be successful.

We hear that a rumor is abroad to the effect that Judge McKoy declines a renomination in this district for Judge. Madame Rumor is near akin to her majesty. "They say"—and we say that competent authority informs us that Allmond A. McKoy while not wishing to be in the way of the over anxious still would obey the will and wishes of his friends in this respect.

The President has nominated the following persons in the Tariff Commission: William A. Wheeler, of New York, chairman; John L. Hayes, Massachusetts; Henry W. Oliver, Jr., Pennsylvania; Austin M. Garland, Illinois; Jocob Ambler, Ohio; John S. Phelps, Missouri; Robert P. Potter, District of Columbia; John W. H. Underwood, Georgia; Duncan F. Kenner, Louisiana.

CONVENTION OF THE THIRD CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

The Convention of the Republican party of the Third Congressional District to nominate a candidate for Congress, assembled at Elizabethtown, on Thursday, June 8th, 1882, and was called to order at 2 o'clock p. m., by Col O. H. Blocker, chairman of the Congressional Committee of the Third District, and J. E. Taylor was selected as temporary secretary.

The following gentlemen were then appointed as the committee on credentials, viz:

John Newell, Bladen; E W Taylor, Brunswick; Henry McDowell, Columbus; S A Blount, Carteret; Wm McIntyre, Pender; J H Whiteman, New Hanover; Clifton Ward, Sampson; A McCullough, Duplin; M N Leary, Cumberland.

When the committee had retired, Mr. Branch of Brunswick county, was called upon and responded happily.

The convention then, upon motion of Gen. Manning, took a recess until the committee on credentials were ready to report.

The committee announcing their readiness to report, the convention was called to order and, and the chairman announced as the first business in order the report of the committee on credentials.

Mr Blount in behalf of the committee reported that there was represented eleven counties in the convention, as follows:

Bladen County—A McDonnell, S Atkinson, W T Pridgen, John Newell.

Brunswick County—A Hankins, E W Taylor.

Carteret County—W J Bushall, S A Blount.

Cumberland County—M N Leary, Jr., Alfred Moore, W P Perry, O H Blocker.

Duplin County—A J Stanford, A R Middleton, H Williams, A McCullough.

Moore County—E B Kelly, W M Black, S H Buchanan, T McLeod.

Onslow County—T E Gillman, A V Harrell.

Columbus County—J H Springer, H McDowell.

Pender County—W McIntyre, Geo. W Carr.

New Hanover—S H Manning, John E Taylor, John H Whiteman, W E N Sellers and George E Berden.

Sampson County—Clifton Ward, Jas L Bullard, John Bunting, George Herring.

The report having been read it was ordered that it be received and adopted.

The next business in order was the election of permanent officers—chairman and secretary—and Gen S H Manning of New Hanover, was chosen permanent chairman and M N Leary, Jr., of Cumberland, was elected permanent secretary.

General Manning tendered his thanks to the convention for their kindness in selecting him as their charman, and in a few well seasoned remarks urged every one to do his duty in the forthcoming campaign. He heartily endorsed the liberal alliance. Before taking his seat, and at the cessation of the applause which greeted his effort, the chairman stated that nominations for Congressman were in order.

The Hon. W. P. Canaday was then unanimously and with cheers selected as the choice of the convention as the candidate of the Republicans of the Third District for Congress.

A committee was appointed to wait upon Mr. Canaday, and inform him of the action of the convention. The committee soon reported with Mr. Canaday, who addressed the convention at length, thanking them for their kindness, and pledging his services if elected to be in the interest of every person in the District and for the improvement of this heretofore neglected section of North Carolina.

Mr. Canaday declared in favor of a protective tariff, and showed its great benefits to the American laborers and industries of this country.

He also indorsed the independent movement of the state, and believed an alliance between the Republicans and the independents would carry the state by 40,000 majority.

Local self-government for the people was very enthusiastically indorsed. He wanted to see local officers elected by the people, and responsible directly to the people for the administration of their respective offices.

A free ballot and a fair count was very strongly indorsed. He showed up the frauds committed at the elections of 1880, and give the bourbon poll holders to understand that in future they would be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law, and advised them to be more careful in the future, as we now had a prosecuting attorney who had the ability as well as the courage to perform his duty.

The school question was dwelt on to a considerable extent. He promised that if elected to congress he would work and vote for an appropriation by congress to support the public schools of the state at least eight months a year.

Public improvements by congress were highly commended by the speaker, and pledged if successful that he would get an appropriation of at least $100,000 per annum to improve and make navigable, at all times, the Cape Fear river.

The great services of Judge Daniel L Russell, while in congress, to this district, was highly, and in a complimentary manner, alluded to by Mr. Canaday. He showed that the river would have been still in the hands of a monopoly, had it not been for the success of the independent candidate in 1878, and that by the election of Judge Russell that year the river was now free to all, and people along the same were saving $100,000 per annum in freights.

Mr. Canaday then denounced in the severest terms the proscriptive policy of the Democratic county commissioners in refusing to put poor laboring white and colored men upon the juries.

Addresses were also made by Messrs. Perry and Leary of Cumberland, and Sheriff Taylor of Brunswick. The following resolution was introduced by Mr. Whiteman of New Hanover.

RESOLVED, That the chairman of this convention is hereby directed to appoint after consultation with the candidate for Congress, a District Committee of thirteen—one from each county and one at-large.

Another resolution endorsing the action of the State Anti-Prohibition Convention in nominating Col. O. H. Dockery for Congress at-large, and Folk for Superior Court Judge, was passed.

The following gentlemen were appointed on the committee on resolutions.

O H Blocker, of Cumberland; J H Whiteman, New Hanover; S A Blount, Carteret.

It was ordered that a copy of these proceedings be sent to the Raleigh "Times," Wilmington Post, New Berne "Ledger," and Goldsboro "Star," with a request to publish.

There being no further business the convention, on motion of Mr. A V Harrell, adjourned sine die.

The resolutions will be published hereafter.

S. H. MANNING, Chm'n.
M. N. LEARY, Jr., Sec'y.

State Items.

The Charlotte Observer says: "A first-class fraud, who passed off in Charlotte as H. J. Paulding, has done up the city and cut out. Look out for him down this way.

Philip Faison, colored, was convicted at Sampson Court on the 3rd inst., of the murder of Henry Sellars, colored, and sentenced to be hung on the 11th day of July 1882.

On last Sunday afternoon two negroes one named Cunningham, the other Jim Winston, engaged in a fight at Franklinton. With a razor Cunningham cut Winston's throat, making a fatal wound.

Mr. Ellis Gowens, a highly respected citizen of Columbus county, aged 88 years, died at Cerro Gordo, in that county last Saturday. He was quite a prominent citizen, and was a magistrate of the county for a number of years.

We learn upon good authority that Rev. J. D. Huffham, D. D., will be elected President of Wake Forest College instead of Rev. T. H. Pitchard, D. D., who will resign in order to accept the pastorate of the first Baptist church of Louisville, Ky. Dr. Huffham is a fine scholar peculiarly talented as an educator and as President of Wake Forest willl be a great addition to the cause of education in North Carolina.

A special term of Guilford Superrior court, with a grand jury and all the other appendages thereunto belonging, has been ordered by the Govenor for July 10th. The Judge has not been named. The county commissioners have not been consulted in this matter, and if it is held it will be against their protest—based chiefly upon the fact that there is no money in the treasury to pay the expense.

Mr. O'Neill, of Holyoke, Mass., while prospecting in the neighborhood of King's Mountain, one day last week, found a crystal which has been pronounced to be a diamond of great value. He thinks it is only a fragment of a larger stone that now lies secreted in the earth near the spot where he picked it up. He also discovered a very rich gold vein in the same neighborhood. Mr. O'Neill is prospecting for a northern company of capitalists.

We learn from a private letter that Judge Gilliam had a narrow escape while traveling over the mountains from Franklin to Hayesville, in a buggy, with Thomas D. Johnston, Esq. While they were going down a very steep road, with a rugged looking precipice on the left, the horse went partly over the edge, dragging the buggy with him. Judge Gilliam jumped just as the buggy was upon the edge, and escaped with a sprained wrist and a lame finger. His jump drew forth the applause of the entire party, Gov. Robinson, Mr. Kope Elias and others being near, and he has made much athletic reputation thereby.

Death Distanced.

Mr. A. E. Carter of this city, yet continues to visit the ladies', and has a great taste for their appreciation.

Mr. Willie Turley saved the life of a little four year old child of Mrs. W. E. Hill from drowning in a pond near this city Sunday evening before last.

Mr. F. W. Huger has received from Mr. J. M. Worth a large consignment of very fine yams. They are extra fine for the season and very large and handsome.

By recommendation of the Produce Exchange it is understood that the general business along the wharf will be closed at 4 o'clock p. m., during the summer days.

Mr. Bennett Flannie, formerly of this city died March 16th 1882 in Arizona. Many of his old school mates in this city will fall like dropping a tear for the free-hearted, brave little Ben. Press to his rubes.

Let no man fail to send his money at once for the POST. Should he fail to do so his paper will be stopped.

A Lodge of the Knights and Ladies of Honor will be organized in this city next Tuesday night.

Superior Court for this county convened here Monday, June 5th Judge Gilmer, presiding.

At ordinary high water we can now navigate 17 feet over our bar, and with extra good tides 18 to 18½ feet. Since the early recollections of the writer this is an increase of 6½ feet improvement.

A somewhat curious fact in connection with our present Superior Court now in session is that the Judge and Solicitor are both wounded soldiers of the late war, both wounded in the same leg, and both limp in the same manner.

The following marriage licenses were issued during the past week:

Jas Hancock and Henretta Padrick, Fred K Hamilton and Victoria Swain, Ed Whitehead and Melissa Lavier, J W Bryant and Josephine Williams.

Hon. W. P. Canaday was unanimously nominated for congress in this district by the Republican convention held at Elizabethtown on the 8th. Col. Canaday surely deserves well of his party, and it should be their delightful delight to honor him whenever they can.

The Neptune Fire Company of Charlotte have extended an invitation to the Cape Fear Steam Fire Engine Company of this city to visit them on the glorious Fourth. They have accepted the same and will start from here on the 3rd. The Cape Fear is an excellent Fire Company, and we hope they will have a very enjoyable time.

Mr. Levi A. Hart, was attacked with paralysis Tuesday evening. The attack is considered quite a severe one. We sincerely hope it may not be, for if Wilmington, and Wilmington's entire population, we mean, really loves any particular one of her citizens, that one is Mr. L. A. Hart. Genial, clever to all, wholesouled, liberal and enterprising. We wish him a speedy and complete restoration.

The Livery and Sales stables of Benj. Scott situated on Fifth between Walnut and Mulberry streets, were entirely destroyed by fire Tuesday night about 12 o'clock. Eight horses, one mule and quite a number of carriages, buggies &c., were also destroyed. When first discovered fire was seen flashing out from three distinct places in different parts of the long building and it is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary. We hear there was a partial insurance. Sheriff Manning's fine stud was among the number burned.

At an election of officers of the Carolina Lodge, No. 135—K of W M of the World, held June 1st, the following were elected for the ensuing term:

W Prelate—David Jones.
W T C—Lewis LeGrand.
W S—John P Nixion.

We were pleased to have a visit last week from our loud and lofty solicitor Swift Galloway, with a voice lumbering like distant thunder, and a form towering like the sycamores that wave o'er the Wabash, he is surely something to be feard as an officer, but with all this bigness of voice and person he carries a bigness of heart in equal proportion which makes all who know him love him. Although not directly from the Green Isle, he's from the Green county of North Carolina, and he's generally appreciated as an emerald pinned in the breast of every one who knows him. "Sapitur presentes, primus in corda, nihil secundus"

The same committee reported adversely on disposing of one or more of the steam fire engines. Adopted.

Alderman Worth moved that the report be referred back to the committee for a report as to the reason against the dispensing with any of the engines, and that the committee be requested to take the matter under immediate consideration and report at a call meeting of the Board. Adopted.

The same committee on the resolutions in regard to the storage of Petroleum beg to say that they are not prepared to make any recommendation in the matter, but submit sundry letters and papers for the information of the Board.

On motion the report, with said letters and papers, was received.

The Committee on Streets and Wharves reported that the wharf at the foot of Chestnut street and the bulkhead at the foot of Red Cross were finished. The same committee, on opening Twelfth street, reported adversely. Adopted.

The application of F. Martin to attend the electric fire alarm was referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

The application of the street hands for increased pay was referred to the Board of Audit and Finance.

The petition of Messrs. J. Hahn and H H. Bowden & Co., to erect a stationary wooden awning down in front of their stores was not granted unless in compliance with the ordinances of the city.

The Board adjourned to meet during the summer months at 3:30 o'clock p. m.

When the steamer John Dawson arrived Friday night, she ran into and badly damaged a flat belonging to Mr. Springer, as she was about landing.

Mr. T. L. Emry the Mayor of Weldon N. C., was in this city on Friday last, and was looking young and hearty as ever. Happy to meet him.—H. J. Harris.

General S. H. Manning, our very efficient sheriff, is in Detroit, Michigan, in attendance on the reunion of the Grand Army of the Republic, on the 14th inst. A jolly time to you, General.

General Allen Rutherford, the son-in-law of our esteemed friend and prominent citizen, Mr. J. H. Neff, was in our city the past week. We were pleased to see him looking well and hearty.

The rite of baptism by immersion, will be administered this afternoon at 5 o'clock p. m., at the foot of Princess street, from the First Baptist church, corner of Third and Campbell streets. Conducted by Rev. A. M. Conway.

On the 26th inst., there will be an excursion to Smithville, under the auspices of the several colored Lodges of this city. There will be a grand parade, oyster bake and fish fry. All are cordially invited to attend.

Well Jedge, how d'ye do? when "furious Frank" and "fiery Hun"—ter's after office get abroad in the land it is about all-man-d can stand to withstand the shock, but, as the old darkey says, "dar-by we'll stand till we hears fudder."

The Election Inspection laws will be rigidly enforced in the coming election and Mr. Public Opinion will have his hands full in discriminating between Pig and 'Possum. "Some body's knocking at the out side gate."

We were really surprised at the beautiful texture of a lot of lap robes on exhibition and for sale by our old friend J. H. Mallard, at his harness depot on Front street. They are of linen, but with softness and finish, resembling silk,—of course every body knows how tasty Jackie always was.

We hope that the reported attempt to assassinate one of our colored citizens, Wm. Crawford, at his home on Dock, between 11th and 12th streets, is untrue, and we are inclined to think it is. From the fact that the shot went through the fence-paling before entering the window, we conclude that it must have been accidental.

The Clinton and Point Caswell R. R. now seems to be a fixed fact. To say that we are proud to announce this would be unnecessary. Push along and open up every avenue you can to develop our resources, and put pennies in the pockets of the laboring poor, put conveniences at the door of the humble, and entwine communities in closer and more intimate intercourse.

Deaths for the past week.—B T Hay, Mrs. E. Hahn, 82 years, old age; Lizzie Lee Bell, 8 months, cholera infantum; L A Hart, 73 years, apoplexy; Sarah Williams, 90 years, paralysis; G W Robinson, Jr., 3½ months, menengetis; H Blackman, 63 years, general debility; H Lucus, 9 months, dropsy; C Banton, 64 years, liver complaint; Satira Barnes, 36 years, pnuemonia; Lula Bell, 2 years; cholera infantum; Mary F Corbett, 1½ years, teething.

Tax listing is dragging its slow length along, and right here let us urge upon our friends of all classes, but especially upon our poor white and colored friends the necessity of listing their taxes. If any of our friends be reading this article in a crowd, we ask them to read it aloud that all the poor and unwary may hear it—Go and list. It is important to you that you should do so. You thereby will save yourself double tax and cost in an action which will surely be brought against you if you neglect it. A word to the wise is sufficient.

THE WILMINGTON POST.

W. P. CANADAY, Proprietor.

WILMINGTON, N. C.,

SUNDAY MORNING, JUNE 11, 1882.

OUR CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS.

On Thursday last the convention of the Republican party of the third district was held at Elizabethtown, Bladen county, and Hon. William P. Canaday was unanimously nominated for congress. This was only carrying out the instructions of the county conventions, for every county in this (the third) district, had unanimously indorsed Mr. Canaday; and not only every county, but nearly every township in the district had passed resolutions unanimously in his favor.

The nomination of Mr. Canday was the most unanimous one that we have ever heard of—not an objection in the Republican party or in the liberal party has been raised against his nomination. This is very gratifying to our candidate, as well as to his friends, and assures his election if all will now do their duty, which we believe will be the case.

The Republican and conservative liberal party never stood as solid as they do to-day, and the future is bright for a grand victory in November next. If the people want a congressman who will be in perfect harmony with the administration, and one who will be able to get money to make the needed improvements in the district, such as an appropriation for Beaufort harbor dredging the sounds from Hattrass Inlet to New Inlet, the improvement of Bogue and New Inlets, cleaning and deepening of Newport river, White Oak river, New River, Lillington river, North East river and the Cape Fear river. Also the establishment of lights along the coast of North Carolina to light up the inlets and the Cape Fear river to Wilmington; for a court house and postoffice at Beaufort, Wilmington and Fayetteville, then they had better elect Mr. Canaday. The man who cultivates rice should by all means have a protective tariff man like Mr. Canaday in congress. The peanut farmers should see that Mr. Canaday is elected. The manufacturing interests will be protected by his success. Every laboring man is greatly interested in th cause that Mr. Canaday truly represents the protection of American workingmen. We appeal to the business men, the laboring men and to the professional men to stand by the candidate who will truly and honestly represent the district if elected to congress.

A few months since the POST inaugurated a campaign against the cruel and senseless policy which existed in many counties of the state, of excluding colored and white laboring men from juries. We are happy to say that our efforts have been appreciated by those in whose behalf we battled, and also by those against whom we battled, who foresaw, with a keenness which fear inspires, themselves defending their unlawful conduct before incorruptible and fearless judges, and naturally dreaded the consequences. This arbitrary and unjust exclusion is rapidly passing away in North Carolina and poor white men and negroes now are respected, and respectable members of juries throughout the state. It may now be stated that wherever a class of citizens is excluded from a participation in the administration of the law, the law is very likely to press down upon that class with a heavy hand. We have the testimony of white men, and Democrats, that in those counties which formerly denied the colored man admission into the jury box, that a negro was often convicted on evidence on which a white man would have been acquitted and also received a severe sentence from the court. This is easy to believe for it is in accordance with the laws of human nature.

We learn that some friends of this paper think we have in this matter pushed the argument too far. Some have feared that it was an attempt to elevate the negro. To the former the reply is that less would not have accomplished the result for which we struggled; that the acknowledged wrongs which the colored people endured cried aloud for a remedy and a speedy one, and when we put our hands to the plow we do not turn back from the work.—Had the commissioners of the various counties in which this foul crime was, year after year perpetrated, been politely shown the unlawfulness of their conduct, and gently asked to amend the wrong, they would have been indifferent, and continued in their course. It was only when they saw the mailed hand of power raised to punish that they promised for the future to abstain.

To the second charge of wishing to elevate the negro, which enemies parade, we at once plead guilty. If it is wrong to wish that a class of human beings can be made happier, more virtuous and more enlightened, if it be a crime to try to remove the foot of the oppressor from the neck of the victim, to implant self-respect in the place of shame and humiliation, to exchange ignorance for intelligence, squalid poverty for comfort, vagrancy for a home, degradation for esteem, then we deserve all the punishment which can be inflicted. And more, not to the negro only would we extend the blessings which a high civilization confers, but to the whites also. There are thousands of white men who are treated by their brethren as oppressively as are the negroes. It is an old remark and a true one, that the wrongs of the rich against the poor are always inflicted, not against the law, but by means of the law. The ex-slaveholders have cunningly encouraged the prejudice of the laboring whites against the negro in order to grasp power, caring in their heart of hearts no more for the welfare of one than the other.

It is time that the laboring people saw this. They should see that their interests are identical, and that their power should be consolidated against the evils of territorialism, usury and ignorance. Upon these agents by which the people are kept under, we purpose to make war.

CHARLESTON, S. C., June 7th, 1882.

EDITOR POST:—Never was the term "bourbon" more aptly applied to any set of men than to the Democratic leaders of South Carolina, for truly they learn nothing and forget nothing. They learn nothing from the lessons of the past, and forget more of their old tricks or animosities. They have not learned that slavery is dead, that the war is over, that the 14th and 15th amendments to the constition have become parts of the constitution itself and that every man is the equal of every other man before the law. They have not yet learned that the infamous black code of South Carolina did more than one act to bring about reconstruction. To day they are trying the same old game and it will meet with no better success than their futile efforts of the past. They are in a woreful plight, now that Mackey has received the seat that he was elected to by a majority of over 2,000, and the signs are that Lee from the first and Smalls from the fifth are soon to take the seats to which they were elected by overwhelming majorities. The trouble has been that our northern Republican friends in congress have not been inclined to stand squarely by the southern Republicans in the fight they are making against bourbon terrorism and crime.

It is a refreshing sign when we see our friends compelled by the Democratic minority to listen to the frauds and outrages that are being perpetrated every campaign by the bourbons to retain control of the offices that they may rob and plunder the people.

The state is already in the midst of a campaign, although the election does not take place until November. The backbone displayed by the Republican congressmen has, by showing a little justice to us in the south, encouraged our friends and dismayed our bourbon enemies. The handwriting is on the wall, and they tremble at their impending fate. The registration law which was expected to be a balm for all their woes, is not sufficient to protect them, and the legislature called in extra session to redistrict and put in Shoestring districts the state; for, say they, there is a Republican majority of 30,000 in the state, the Republicans will carry three out of the five districts, and the House will seat the two member at large who will surely be elected by the Republicans, and if counted out will contest, and of course will be seated. And so an extra session has been called and for cientific jerrymandering await the action of the bourbon legislature that meets on the 27th inst. It is said that the sole right to "Mark Twain's war map" has been bought by the bourbons, in order to redistrict the state, so as to give them five or six out of the seven districts. Counties, townships and even towns are to be cut in two, three and four pieces so as to get Democratic districts, and to throw the Republicans together. The mountain is now in labor, though the result will probably be a pole cat, not a mouse.

Registration is going on throughout the state, though not to the satisfaction of the bourbons. When the law was passed the leaders claimed that it was a sure cure for all bourbon ills and pains. The colored man would not register, and the white man would. There would not be time to register all and enough colored men would be frozen out instead of counted out or even Stone balloted out to give the bourbons a majority in the state and various counties. When the registration began, it was found that white men rebelled against carrying a pass to an old time negro slave, and the white man was every where anxious to qualify himself to vote. Something had to be done; the order went out to the bourbon supervisor to register every bourbon and prevent by discrimination, force or any means the Republicans from registering. Fill the places of registration with bourbon police and deputy sheriffs, and prevent United States Marshals as well as Republican voters from going into the room! The scheme having developed itself fully the Republican chairman determined to spoil the pretty game, and he did it effectually, at least for the present. Fraud being rampant, the United States Marshal sent his deputies to the places of registration to prevent it. They were ejected by the bourbon supervisor and the marshals arrested the supervisor. Every time the marshals were ejected the the supervisor was arrested and bound over for trial at the next term of the United States court. This reached the ears of Attorney General Brewster, who telegraphed Marshal Blythe to take sufficient force, put his deputies in the room, prevent fraudulent registration, and promtly arrest without process any one who ejected, hindered obstructed or interfered with the marshalls, or any one who advised that it be done. These instructions were shown to the bourbon editor of the "News and Courier," but he would not publish them.

The scheme of the bourbons did not work well, and as our chairman compelled the bourbon supervisor to give colored men the same chance that was given white men, the bourbons had him arrested for intimidating three white Democrats and bound him over in the sum of $1,000 for trial at the next criminal court. A farce called an examination, was had before a bourbon trial justice, the Democratic chairman acting as prosecuting attorney. The three Democrats were present, and though the defence demanded that they be asked if they were assaulted or intimidated, the Democratic chairman ordered that it be not done, and the poor justice refused the demand. These three persons were far more indignant at the use made of their names than the Republican chairman, and they asserted in the court room, and publicly on the streets, that it was an outrage, as they had not been interfered with in any way. The supervisor who made the affidavit swore he was annoyed by Mr. Taft's objecting to his violating the civil rights act and the 15th amendment as he was a state officer acting under state law; that he knew of no one and heard of no one being intimidated or assaulted in any way. A policeman testified that he was detailed at the place of registration to buy up registration certificates and saw Taft read the oath to colored men, and thought that might intimidate some Republicans, as a man left his place in line to hear Taft read it. The Democratic chairman bulldozed the justice into binding Taft over to the court, in order to bulldoze Republicans in the county, though it will not have the desired effect. The court are run by the bulldozers, but this case is more than they can stand.

The bourbon correspondent of the associated press who is also editor of the "News and Courier," although he had the official stenographers report in his office telegraphed to the associated press, "that though it was admitted by the prosecution i. e., the Democratic chairman—that the persons charged in the affidavit as being assaulted and intimidated would say that they were not in any way interfered with, yet there being evidence that Taft acted in a boisterous and threatening manner he was held for trial."

The bourbon bulldozer knew it was untrue, yet he sent the telegram for effect. While a bourbon will lie, you rarely hear of his being charged with telling the truth, even by accident.

The last days of the bourbons are near at hand; being compelled to allow their actions watched, fraud will be prevented, for fraud is as necessary to sustain bourbons as carrion is to sustain buzzards.

When our bourbon legislature meets look out for the climax of fraud.

"He left a bourbons name to other times Linked with no virtue, but a thousand Crimes."

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 6, '82.

EDITOR POST:—The people of Washington are apt to congratulate themselves that they are more favored than ordinary mortals. The delightful weather of the past few days, more appropriate to April than June, finds the city in its full summer costume of light green garlanded with flowers. The miles upon miles of pavement, smooth as a ballroom floor, and lined on either side by rows of beautiful trees are the scene of most magnificent turn-outs from the biciclo of the department clerk to the carriage of the millionaire.

The past week has been an eventful one in congress. The solid south has been pretty well shaken up. Four Republicans, cheated out of their rights by the most outrageous frauds, have at last been seated, also one greenbacker. Although the political teachings of the greenbackers are repugnant to all lovers of an honest financial system, yet they are in accord with us in being in favor of a "free ballot and a fair count." Upon this basis we will fight, and if beaten, accept the situation without a murmur.

In connection with the contested election cases was much hard work and some disgraceful scenes of which even our Democratic friends will be ashamed. Chief among them was the exhibition of Mr. S. S. Cox of New York, at the opening of the Lowe-Wheeler case. This gentleman, usually so polite and manly in debate, surprised his friends and disgusted the House by a display of gross and vulgar abuse of the majority and the Speaker. The most charitable construction that can be put upon his conduct is that he was drunk, and this is doubtless the truth. The action of the House in seating these men will be a salutary lesson to ballot box stuffers, and will do much to encourage the majority in their efforts to secure a just representation in congress.

The President has been to New York and the gossips are busy. Some say he went "to see the boys." Others that he arranged the gubernatorial state while there. In fact by applying to the nearest shop you can hear anything you like. For instance, there is a coolness between the President and Mr. Conkling; or that Mr. C. absorbed the whole of the President's time while there; that they even went fishing together and Arthur caught the most trout—this is doubtless the cause of the coolness.—Secretary Folger is to run for Governor of New York and Conkling will take his place; or if that don't suit them Minister Lowell is to be recalled and Mr. Frelinghuysen will be sent to St. James to twist the tail of the British lion. Mr. Conkling will be Secretary of State, and to please the immaculate independents of Pennsylvania, Don Cameron will be put at the head of the Treasury Department, and his place in the Senate filled by one of the purest statesmen representing the aforesaid immaculates—Wolfe, for instance.

Just now North Carolina is attracting much attention; she being among the first of the southern states to organize for the campaign, and all are more or less anxious to know the outcome of the liberal movement. If it will enable us to secure a fair count then will we be repaid for every concession we may make. In any event it will be much more agreeable to see a few honest and manly independents in high position than the old time threadbare mossback bourbons.

It is to be hoped that the coming state convention will treat this question with the fairness it deserves, and while not making any sacrifice of party principle or integrity, secure the cooperation of all friends of good government.

As I write I have the glorious news from Oregon. What do our Democratic friends now think of the Pacific slope.

TRENTON, June 3d, 1882.

This convention was called to order at 12 o'clock m., by Mr. Isaac T. Wilson, chairman of the Republican executive committee of Jones. He stated briefly, in telling words, the object of the convention. A committee on credentials was then appointed, according to the plan of organization. This committee retired to a room, and soon made a report. The report of the committee on credentials showed that each precinct in the county was properly represented. The committee on permanent organization recommended Isaac T. Wilson for chairman and C T L M Simmons for secretary. This recommendation was unanimously adopted by the delegates. The chairman then declared the nominations for the election of delegates to the various conventions were in order. The convention was addressed by Hon E R Page and Mr Amos Bryan. The delegates and spectators deserve much credit for their good conduct. A more peaceable convention has never convened at Trenton. The following delegates were elected to the conventions named:

State convention—Isaac T Wilson and Arnold Mills.

Judicial convention—F F Green and Mitchell Kinsey.

A motion was made by C T L M Simmons, giving the delegates to the congressional convention a second choice candidate, but it was nearly unanimously voted down. The following resolutions were then introduced by the same gentleman, which were unanimously adopted by the convention:

WHEREAS, From the efficient services rendered by Hon Orlando Hubbs, as a member of congress, in behalf of his constituents and country, entitle him to be his own successor; therefore be it resolved,

1st. It is admitted by all that Hon Orlando Hubbs has made a good representative. This being true, every lover of the prosperity of his country, or at least all true hearted Republicans should join us in making such a faithful servant be his own successor.

2d. We are in favor of protective tariff, and when our worthy congressman voted in its favor he assured us that he was a true friend to his country, and also to every man of whatever vocation within the limits of the United States of America.

3d. Our delegates are hereby instructed to cast the vote of Jones county for Hon Orlando Hubbs, and use all honorable means to secure his renomination.

4th. The present move in congress to establish a national system of education, or to appropriate a certain sum to be divided among the several states and territories as an aid thereof, meets our hearty approval and endorsement.

5th. The patriotic manner in which Hon E R Page represented this county county in the last General Assembly of North Carolina meets our hearty approval and endorsement.

6th. It is to be remembered that our faithful and polite Register of Deeds, Mr Isaac T Wilson, course is quite satisfactory to us all; further, he is worthy of every laudable word any one can say of him.

7th. That the proceedings of this convention be published in the Wilmington Post, Goldsboro Star and the Lodge, and other papers favoring will please copy.

ISAAC T. WILSON, Chairman.

Memorial Day.

SALISBURY, N. C., June 1, 1882.

On the morning of the 30th of May from all parts of this county, and the adjoining counties, the colored people came in large numbers, until 12 o'clock m., for the purpose of decorating the graves of the Union soldiers. The procession was formed at the A. M. E. Zion Church, led by Chief Marshal J. B. Ballot and followed by the Lexington band, which furnished appropriate music for the occasion, and that followed by the fire companies; next in order were several carriages, the inmates of which were colored, save one carriage, which contained Col. W. R. Henderson of Lexington, orator of the day, and D. L. Bringle, esq., P. M., and Rev. A. F. Gaushin. The line of march was up Church street to Ennis, down Ennis to Lee, and from Lee to Main, down Main to Bank, thence to the cemetery, where an appropriate hymn was sung, and prayer offered by Rev. A. F. Gaushin. After the devotional exercises had concluded we proceeded to decorate the graves; in perfect order, each one marched along and laid, some a boquet, others wreaths, and others crowns, all made of the finest flowers that could be obtained. Thousands marched in and viewed the resting place of those noble heroes who sacrificed their lives in defense of their country. After decorating the graves, a line was formed and we marched to the court house, where the audience was addressed by the orator of the day, Col. W. R. Henderson. Mr. Henderson's address was full of patriotic fire; he spoke in the highest terms of the Union soldiers and noble cause in which they fell. He also spoke in a commendable manner of the colored people, and advised them to seek every possible advantage to educate and improve themselves; though he said there never was a race that had made greater progress than the oppressed negro of America, yet there was room for improvement. Mr. C. S. Brown was then introduced and acquitted himself in a very commendable manner. Your humble servant was also introduced, but spoke a very short while. The last, but by no means the least, was Prof. A. J. Richardson. He rose and spoke very encouragingly of the negro, and advised them to buy land, and seek every avenue of improvement. His remarks were laconic, instructive and appropriate. The programme being exhausted the exercises of the day closed, and all retired to Meroney's Opera Hall, where refreshments of all kinds were in waiting for those who might wish to partake. Everybody seemed to enjoy themselves; in fact the whole programme was a complete success.

Yours for the POST.
W. H. HENDERSON.

LUMBERTON, N. C., June 3, 1882.

EDITOR POST:—The county convention of Robeson county for the purpose of electing delegates to the state and congressional conventions assembled in the court house to-day at 12 o'clock m.

The convention was called to order by Hon. E. K. Proctor, chairman of the Republican executive committee of Robeson county, and Jno. S. Lewis was requested to act as temporary secretary.

On motion of Hon. John Holloway a committee of five was appointed on credentials, consisting of the following gentlemen: Messrs. J. M. McArthur, George W. McQueen, Enoch McCallum, Sinclair Lowery and Rev. J. S. Henderson. During the deliberations of the committee the convention was addressed by Messrs. J. F. A. Lamond, John Holloway, and N. A. McLean.—Each made a pointed address, and advocated Hon. O. H Dockery for Congressman at large.

The committee on credentials reported the following townships represented by the delegates whose names follow them:

Shoe Heel—J M McArthur, John Holloway and G H Leach.

Alfordsville—S B McQueen, Enoch McCallum and William Bishop.

Britts—Rayford Thompson, Frank Edmonds and Andrew Thompson.

Burnt Swamp—O S Hayes, Morris Ellis and Elis Brayboy.

Smiths—N A McLean, J S Henderson and Peter D McCallum.

White House—Henry Floyd, Mode Inman and Alexander Bethea.

Wisharts—Zack West, Jordan Pittman and Samuel Smith.

Thompsons—William Cobb, Sinclair Lowery and Marshall Maxwell.

Lumber Bridge—W S Smith, Geo Brown and J H Smith.

Lumberton—E K Proctor, J F A Lamond and Geo W McQueen.

On motion, the report was adopted; after which Hon E K Proctor was elected permanent chairman, and John S Lewis permanent secretary. It was then agreed that the chair appoint a committee of four to nominate suitable delegates to represent the county in the state and congressional conventions, when the following appointments were made: Hon John Holloway, Geo W McQueen, J S Henderson and Sinclair Lowery. In the absence of this committee the convention was ably addressed by Hon O J Sykes of Richmond, also Hon O S Hayes made some pertinent remarks. Here it must be noted that Hon R M Norment also made an able speech, which was omitted in the place. It is needless to attempt any comments on Dr Norment's speech, when his reputation as an orator is so well known. Suffice it to say that the noble Doctor always strikes a sledge hammer blow and never fails to make political havoc in the Democratic camp. The committee reported the following delegates and alternates to the above named conventions, which was received and adopted:

State convention—E K Proctor, Jno Holloway, J M McArthur, J F A Lamond Alternates—W E Thompson, Robert Inman, Geo W McQueen, Sinclair Lowery.

Congressional convention—O S Hayes, John S Lewis, J S Henderson, W P Barnes. Alternates—Isaac Brayboy, Jack Alford, Joshua Phillips, L Thompson.

The following named persons were elected for the executive committee of the county: E K Proctor, chairman; J M McArthur, N A McLean, O S Hayes, S B McQueen, John McIntosh, Mode Inman, Joshua Phillips, J T Hedgepeth, Sinclair Lowery, W S Smith and Stephen Carter.

This was the most orderly and harmonious political gathering ever witnessed in this town. And although earlier in the day it seemed as if there were going to be outbursts of contention from the zeal manifested on the part of some, as to their choice of delegates, yet when the thought came to them that all were Republicans, and the success of the party was the great end aimed at, they were all satisfied to rest the work in the hands of Republicans. Several of our Democratic friends came up to look on—"to see the elephant," but the "performances" were not such as they expected to see, and these good natured gentlemen quietly left, no doubt with feelings akin to Haman's when he "saw Mordecai in the King's gate," on the day of the feast.

ROBESON indorses O. H. Dockery for congressman at large, R. M. Norment for congress from the sixth district and Nathaniel McLean for superior court judge. The convention adjourned in the best of humor.

E. K. PROCTOR, Ch'm'n.
JNO. S. LEWIS, Sec'y.

Parrott secretary. The chairman briefly stated the object of the meeting, in which he said there was to be chosen delegates to Congressional, State and Judicial conventions, according to plan of Republican organization.

On motion of W. J. Pope a committee of five were appointed on credentials. During the absence of the committee, which was brief, several prominent speakers addressed the convention with great eloquence, after which the committee reported through their chairman, R. B. Executive Committee—R W King, D M Stanton, D D Barnes, Mack Lanier, W J Pope, John W Eayis, Robin Watters, Nathan Hill B F Parrott and H T Richardson.

The following resolutions were unanimously endorsed:

RESOLVED, 1. That with a just appreciation of true merit and a keenly touched pathos, we lament the timely and barbarous removal of President James A. Garfield, our chosen chief; but we felicitate ourselves in the fact that by the same ballot, we selected a successor so eminently worthy to occupy the chair vacated by his death.

2. That the delegates from Lenoir county to the state convention, be, and they are hereby instructed to cast their votes for the nomination of Col. O. H. Dockery, of Richmond county, for Congressman for the state-at-large.

3. That we hereafter endorse our worthy representative from this Congressional district, Hon. Orlando Hubbs, whose prompt and vigilant services in behalf of his constituents, has won even from his political opponents the highest encomiums, are duly appreciated by us as a sufficient guarantee for future fidelity, and that the delegates from this county to the district convention, to assemble in Wilson on the 19th day of July, prox., are hereby instructed to vote for his nomination for his re-election for congress.

4. That we endorse the liberal movement in this state, so far as to extend a hearty welcome into our ranks of all enemies of bourbonism, but that the Republican party shall remain intact, the grand old army compromising none of its cherished principles in an effort to reconcile, and that we denounce the destruction of local government in this state, and pledge ourselves to a free ballot, free education and home government in county affairs.

On motion of L. H. Fisher, it was ordered that the proceedings be published in the Raleigh "Times," Goldsboro "Star," Wilmington Post, New Berne "Ledge" and Wilson "News."

On motion of W. J. Pope the convention adjourned.

It was conceeded that the convention was the most harmonious ever held in Lenoir county.

Supreme Court Decisions.

[From Advance Sheet of the 86 North Carolina Reports.]

Deloatch vs. Rogers.

1. The result of an election will not be disturbed because of illegal votes received or legal votes refused, unless the number be such that the correction would show a majority for the contesting party.

2. And the burden of proof is upon the contestant to show the rejection of a sufficient number of votes, even if they ought to have been counted, to reverse the declared result.

3. The election law of 1877, chapter 275, section 20, enumerates three kinds of tickets, which are declared void, and must be rejected from the count as to all persons voted for thereon:

(1) Tickets rolled up together.

(2) Those containing the names of more persons than the elector is entitled to vote for, whether for a single office, or for one not to be filled, as in this case.

(3) And those having some device upon them.

The Asheville Citizen regales its readers with a lengthy article on the blessings of railway communication as now secured through the extension of the Western North Carolina railroad. We fully agree with our neighbor in his views relative to the importance of the road in hastening the development of so many interests, but are of the opinion that the time will come when the people of the state will not feel satisfied over this disposition of a property on which $10,000,000 of their money was expended, and which is now paying a handsome return. Public sentiment will hold those connected with the scheme to a strict accountability for their acts, and demand an explanation somewhat difficult to render.

The Supreme court in banc of the district of Columbia has refused to allow Mr. Reed, Guiteau's lawyer, to reargue Guiteau's case. We have understood that as a last resort, Mr. Reed contemplates bringing the prisoner before a justice of the Supreme court on a writ of habeas corpus. If this application should be refused, Guiteau will be hanged on the 30th of this month.

ROOMS REP. STATE EX. COM.,
RALEIGH, N. C., April 18, '82.

At a meeting of the State Executive Committee of the Republican party, held this day, it was unanimously resolved that a state convention be held in Raleigh on Wednesday, the 14th day of June, 1882, in accordance with the plan of organization of the Republican party, for the purpose of placing in nomination a candidate for congressman at large, a Judge of the Supreme Court and for the ratification of the nominations made by the several districts for Judges of the Superior Courts and to consider other matters materially affecting the success of our cause and the final overthrow of bourbon Democracy in North Carolina.

J. J. MOTT, Ch'm'n
J. C. L. HARRIS, Sec'y.

PLAN OF ORGANIZATION.

Rules and Regulations for the Organization of the Republican Party of North Carolina:

We republish below the plan of organization adopted by the Republican State convention in 1880, which will have to be carried out during the present campaign, and the Republicans of the state will do well to study it so as to be able to carry it out.

I. County Organization.—The election precinct shall be the unit of county organization. Each precinct shall have an executive committee consisting of three active Republicans. They shall be biennially chosen by the Republican voters of the precinct, and shall elect one of their number chairman. They shall convene together at such time and place as the majority of them may elect. They shall biennially elect a county executive committee, to consist of not less than five members, who shall elect a chairman from their number. Vacancies in precinct committees shall be filled by the voters of the precinct, and in county committees by a convention of the precinct committees duly called: Provided, that in case a vacancy occurs within thirty days prior to an election, such vacancy may be filled by the vote of the remaining members.

II. Congressional, Judicial and Senatorial Districts.—There shall be a congressional, Judicial and Senatorial District committee, composed of not less than one member from each county, not less than seven members, biennially elected by the several district conventions, each of whom shall elect a chairman from their number: Provided, that a senatorial district committee shall only be elected in districts embracing more than one county. Vacancies occurring within thirty days of an election may be filled by the vote of the committee.

III. State Executive committee.—There shall be a State Executive committee, composed of one member from each congressional District in the state, to be designated by the district delegations in State convention assembled; two members at large, to be elected by the State convention, and the chairman of the convention at which the election is held. They shall be biennially elected at the State convention, shall choose one of their number chairman, and shall elect a secretary who is not a member, who shall reside at Raleigh.

IV. The chairman of the respective county, district and State Executive committees shall call their conventions to order and act as temporary chairmen until a permanent organization is affected, with power only to appoint, and receive the report of, a committee on credentials.

V. No executive committee shall have power to elect or appoint delegates to any convention, whether county, district, State or National.

VI. No member of an executive committee or delegate or alternate duly chosen shall have power to delegate his trust or authority to another.

VII. Representation.—Representation in county conventions shall consist of three Republican voters as delegates, and three as alternates, from each precinct in the county, and no more.

VIII. Representation in congressional, Judicial, Senatorial and State conventions shall consist of two delegates and two alternates only, for every member of the lower House of the General Assembly and shall be apportioned in the several counties accordingly.

IX. Delegates and alternates to county conventions shall be elected only by a vote of the Republicans of each precinct in precinct meeting assembled; and delegates and alternates to district, State and National conventions shall be elected by a convention of delegates duly elected and sent by the people for that purpose after due notice and publication of not less than fifteen days, of the time, place and purpose of such convention, and not otherwise.

X. The certificate of the chairman and secretary of the meeting, setting forth regularity of the primary meeting or convention, and the election of the delegate and alternate thereat, shall be accepted, when uncontested, as a good and sufficient credential for such delegate and alternate.

XI. This plan of organization and procedure shall continue in force until changed or abrogated by a subsequent Republican State convention.

Adopted in State convention, July 8, 1880.

GREENSBORO, N. C., June 8, '82.

Dear Post:

The commencement season in the white and colored institutions of learning is in full bloom at the present among us.

The Southern Methodist Female College had its closing exercises last week. According to reports the number of visitors was the largest, and the exercises among the best that have taken place at the institution for many a year.

Fab. H. Busbee, Esq., of Raleigh, delivered the principle address before the students this year, which was highly appreciated and spoken of as a most excellent literary effort. Unfortunately this institution has been encumbered with a great financial drawback for some years past, and this year it was advertised for sale, in order to satisfy mortgages. On the 5th inst., the sale took place and was bid off at $20,000 in the name of certain individuals, who are interested in the welfare progress of the college, and it will be continued as heretofore.

Bennett Seminary, a colored institution of learning, located here under the auspices of the Northern Methodists, is this week finishing up its academic year. The Seminary is comparatively young. This has been its most prosperous year, the number of students in attendance being 151. The advantage of the locality, the popularity, the proficiency and energy of the instructors in charge destines the Seminary to be one of the most successful colored educational institutions in the state in the future.

Trade is pretty brisk. Manufacturing enterprises and rumors of such to be established in the near future, are quite numerous. When the different railroads leading into this place shall have been completed and in full operation, Greensboro will be one of the leading commercial centres in the state.

It would have had this reputation long ago, had it not been for the narrowness and close-fistedness of the "oldest inhabitants."

Politics at the present are quiet in this county, somewhat like the calm before the storm. Candidates for office, who have fallen in the estimation of the public are gradually trying to crawl up again. We wish them much success, but they should remember that "many are called, but few are chosen."

NORTHAMPTON Co., N. C., June 3rd 1882.

Pursuant to a call of the Republican convention to be held in the Court house in the town of Jackson, Northampton county for the purpose of electing delegates to the state convention, to be held in the city of Raleigh, on the 14th day of June, 1882; congressional convention to be held in the town of Wilson, on the 19th day of July 1882, and the judicial convention to be held in the town of Tarboro, on the 12th day of June 1882.

The convention was called to order by Mr J W Newsom chairman of the Republican county executive committee, who by a few appropriate remarks stated the object of the meeting.

The convention then went into permanent organization by electing Jno W Pope Esq chairman and Chas H Williams Esq secretary. After which the convention elected the delegates and alternates to-wit:

The state convention—Willis Bagley, W Baker, J D Davis, and Henderson R DeLoach. Alternates—J D Skyes, Ruffin Falson, J W Copeland, and J D Lankfort.

The congressional convention——O Falson, S G Newsome, Jno W Pope and H R DeLoach. Alternates—W Falson, C H Williams, E C Cooper, and Toney Ramsay.

The judicial convention—W Harrill, J M C Watson, W B Lank, and W Dobs. Alternates—W M Brewer, W J Boone, W H Scott, and J Robbinson.

The following preamble and resolutions were offered by Mr J W Pope, and unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, It being the spirit of the Republican party in the second congressional district of North Carolina, to bring to the front every colored man of prominance and ability to help marshal the masses for the ensuing struggle,

AND WHEREAS, The second congressional district is the so called negro Republican district of North Carolina, owing to the majority of colored voters,

AND WHEREAS, We the Republicans of Northampton county, believing it to be right that these sun-scorched citizens of Ham in said district, be once represented in congress by a Representation of their color,

AND WHEREAS, It has been our custom to name certain men as our choice to represent our interest, therefore be it

Resolved, That this convention endorse as our choice to represent the above named district in the national congress of the United States, the Hon his unequal ability to defend our interests in every particular; be it

Resolved further, That it is the sense of this convention, that delegates to the judicial convention be instructed to vote for John H Collins Esq, as a candidate for solicitor, and the delegates to the state convention, be instructed to vote for the Hon O H Dockery as a candidate for congressman at large,

AND WHEREAS, We believe the time has come when we must take some steps to redeem North Carolina from bourbon Democracy,

AND WHEREAS, It is the duty of every good citizen to help forward the object of redemtion, so that the administration of the state government may meet with the approval of her citizens, therefore be it

Resolved, That we enter our solemn protest against actions of the last legislature in denying the people local self government in matter of a county commissioners, magistrates, school committeemen &c.

Resolved, further, That we denounce the actions of the Democratic poll holders of Northampton, in refusing to count the Republican county tickets at certain voting precincts, and the commissioners to qualify our elected Register of Deeds, Henderson R DeLoach, and we pledge ourselves to use all fair means in seeing that we have a fair vote and honest count in the ensuing election.

Resolved, further, That a copy of these preambles and resolutions together with the proceedings of this convention be sent to the Wilmington POST with the request of their publication.

After which the convention was addressed by several gentlemen, among whom were the Hon J E O'Hara, and the Hon Willis Bagly, well known gentlemen and true friends of the Republican party. Perfect harmony prevailed throughout the deliberations.

On motion the convention adjourned sine die.

CHAS. H. WILLIAMS, Secretary.

FAYETTEVILLE, Cumberland Co., June 1st, 1882.

Pursuant to a call of the executive committee of Cumberland county, a convention was held at Fayetteville, N. C., at which the several townships were represented. The convention was called to order by T S Lutterloh, chairman of the Republican executive committee.

On motion J S Leary was elected chairman and John X Smith, Esq, secretary of the convention.

On motion, the chair appointed a committee to examine the credentials of the delegates to the convention.

On motion the chair appointed a committee to select delegates to represent the county at the district and state conventions. The committee after a short absence returned with the following recommendations for delegates:

State convention—O H Blocker, Jno S Leary, A G Thornton, M N Leary, jr. Alternates—John X Smith, A J Henderson, Jerry McKinnon, T S Lutterloh.

District convention—M N Leary, jr, Alfred Moore, James R Deal, O H Blocker. Alternates—Paul Nichols, W P Perry, Moses Whitehead F P Williston.

The following resolutions were adopted by the convention:

Resolved, That as the fundamental principles, of our system of government is, that it is a government of the people, for the people and by the people; and that as taxation without representation is tyranny, no law or set of laws ought to be passed by the legislature which abridges or takes away from the people any of their inherent rights.

2d. That the passage of a law by the Democratic legislature, whereby the people of the several counties in the state were practically disfranchised, by being deprived of the right to elect their county officers, was a gross violation of the fundamental principles of our system of government; a great outrage upon the masses of the people, and richly deserves the condemnation of all persons in the state, who are in favor of right, justice and liberty, and opposed to class domination and tyranny.

3d, That it is the duty of the people of North Carolina, without regard to former political affiliations, to put the seal of their condemnation, at the ballot box, upon the rule or ruin Democratic bourbon leaders, we therefore hail with delight the inauguration of a movement by the people looking to that end, and we will cooperate with, and invite the cooperation of, all persons throughout the state, who are in favor of a free ballot, and a fair count.

During the absence of the committees the convention was addressed by Warren Carver, Esq., and during the meeting stirring speeches were delivered by E. Powers, Esq., W. P. Perry and John Ottorburg.

Great enthusiasm prevailed throughout the convention. Old Cumberland is herself again, and wide awake.

Ordered by the convention that the proceedings of this convention be sent to the Wilmington POST with a request to publish the same.

J. S. LEARY, Chm'n.
JOHN X. SMITH, Sec'y.

ENFIELD, June 5th, 1882.

DEAR POST:—On June 3rd, the Republicans of Halifax county were called to order by J. T. Gregory, Esq., chairman of the Republican executive committee, for the purpose of electing delegates to the state, congressional and judicial conventions. A permanent organization was effected by choosing J. T Gregory, Esq., chairman, and T. W. Hardy and H. E. Davis, secretaries.

Most of the townships being represented, the following appointments were made:

Judicial convention—J W Johnson, C C Baker, H E Davis, J M Pitman. Alternates—A Bush, Whit Hardy, J H Eaton, J T Gregory.

State convention—J T Gregory, R J Lewis, H E Davis, W T Weaver, J J Goodwin, Wm Jones, J H Jenkins, A J Jackson, R J Mayo, J T Reynolds, W H Capell, Robert Parker, Thomas Whitaker, J E O'Hara, W F Young, G A Brown, J C Jones, Stewart Hardy, Marcus Pullen, C B Bustin, and all Republicans from Halifax county, in attendance on the state convention were authorized to act with the delegation.

Congressional convention—W H Harrison, J C Jones, J J Wood, J H Hannon. Alternates—P G Solomon, Jas M Pitman, T W Hardy, John Howard.

Resolutions in favor of John A Moore for superior court judge, John N Collins for solicitor of superior court, and J E O'Hara for congress, and O H Dockery for congressman at large.—These candidates having no rivals in the county, had a "walk over."

After the adjournment of the convention, the county executive committee ordered the assemblage of Republicans for the nomination of county and legislative tickets, to take place on the 26th day of August next.

The liberal movement is gaining ground here. A former Democrat told me that he knew at one polling place in this county, one hundred former Democrats who will vote against bourbon rule at the next election. In fact this sentiment prevails throughout the county, the Roanoke and Albemarle sections. Shall expect to meet a strong delegation from New Hanover, at the state convention.

Yours for success,
J. T. REYNOLDS.

An Extraordinary Offer.

There are a large number of persons out of employment in every county. Such as want employment and are willing to work with energy, can make from $100 to $500 a month working for us. The amount made by our agents varies, according to their energy and ability, some making $100, while others make as high as $500 a month. With an article of great merit, that should be sold to every House-owner who sees it paying 100 per cent. profit to the agent, with no sale less than $400. Any man with energy enough to move himself about to show it cannot make less than $1,500 a year—while a live, pushing man working for the most that can be made will make $6,000. We only want one man in each county, and to him will give the exclusive sale as long as he continues to work faithfully for us. There is no competition from any source as there is nothing like it made by anyone but ourselves. Parties having from $250 to 1,000 to invest can obtain a general agency of from 10 counties to a state. We want good workers to act for us, and such will obtain, not only a very profitable business, but one that will be permanent and pleasant. We are not paying salaries, and request that those that think of receiving such terms from us that they do not write us, for we only want men who are willing to work for the profits of their energy and ability—let that be what it may. We will mail our descriptive circulars to all out of employment, on receipt of 3 cent stamp. The first to comply with our terms will secure the county or counties they want.

Address, RENNER MANUFACTURING Co., 116 Smithfield street, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Republican Conventions.

The different townships in the county will meet in convention at such places as the chairman of each shall designate, on the last Saturday in May, and elect three delegates and three alternates to the county convention, which will elect deligates to the state convention and perfom such other works as may properly come before it.

[In townships were there is no executive committee, the Republicans of the township may assemble in meeting and there elect an executive committee and choose delegates and alternates as above set forth.]

THE LEADING SCIENTISTS OF TODAY agree that most diseases are caused by disordered Kidneys or Liver. If therefore, the Kidneys and Liver are kept in perfect order, perfect health will be the result. This truth has only been known a short time and for years people suffered great agony without being able to find relief. The discovery of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure marks a new era in the treatment of these troubles. Made from a simple tropical leaf of rare value, it contains just the elements necessary to nourish and invigorate both of these great organs, and safely restore and keep them in order. It is a POSITIVE remedy for all the diseases that cause pains in the lower part of the body—for Torpid Liver—Headaches—Jaundice—Dizziness—Gravel—Fever—Ague—Malarial Fever, and all difficulties of the Kidneys, Liver and Urinary Organs.

It is an excellent and safe remedy for females during Pregnancy. It will control Menstruation and is invaluable for Leucorrhœa or Failing of the Womb.

As a Blood Purifier it is unequaled, for it cures the organs that make the blood.

This Remedy, which has done such wonders, is put up in the LARGEST SIZED BOTTLE of any medicine upon the market, and is sold by Druggists and all dealers at $1.25 per bottle. For Diabetes, inquire for WARNER'S SAFE DIABETES CURE. It is a POSITIVE REMEDY.

VALUABLE REMEDIES.

ANNOUNCEMENT TO MY FRIENDS.

WHAT I HAVE DONE AND AM DOING.

SEE CERTIFICATES BELOW.

PROF. WM. H. MOORE—Dear Sir.—This is to certify that I have been blind in both eyes for eighteen years, also subject to fits for the same length of time. I tried all the doctors around, and was never relieved of either of the complaints until Almighty God sent Prof. Wm. H. Moore to Tarboro. From the time he commenced working on me I commenced to get better, and now I have no fits at all, and can see as well as any one. I am well known in this county of Edgecombe.

MRS. ELIZABETH JOHNSON.

Witnesses: F. D. Battle, Anthony Johnson, Rev. W. H. Thurber, Hon. W. F. Mabson, principal of colored free school.

Prof. W. H. Moore will soon take a trip through Pitt, Martin and Beaufort counties for the purpose of relieving the afflicted. All who desire to enjoy life should see or write him for his celebrated Medicine.

Address, Prof. W. H. MOORE,
Tarboro, N. C.

PROF. W. H. MOORE:

Dear Sir—I am well pleased with your Ointment that I bought of you. It has cured my feet. I have been frost-bitten for 10 years. I have not had rest until I tried your Ointment. I can't tell the worth of this Ointment. I tried every thing. Nothing cured but this.

Yours,
W. H. DOGGETT.

This is to certify the public generally, that the Liniment sold by Prof. W. H. Moore, under the name of O. K., is a good article, not only because the public has said so, but I have used it and it gave me permanent relief. I do cheerfully recommend it.

JULIUS F. JONES,
Sheriff of Carteret Co.

December, 10th, 1881.

I have used Dr. Wm. H. Moore's O. K. Liniment, and I have found it good in every respect, not only because it has relieved me, but I see what it has done for others, and is still doing. I heartily recommend it to all who are in possession of excruciating pains and aliments.

W. J. BUSHALL,

Cure of bad case of Scrofula on the face.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Feb. 18, 1881.

PROF. W. H. MOORE—Dear Sir.—I think it a duty I owe to you and my fellow creatures who are suffering, to make known the wonderful effects your medicines have had on me, hoping all who are troubled with a humor in their blood will give it a trial. I am confident from practical experience that if persons will follow the directions and give it a fair trial, that it will cure any one that has disease of like character. I suffered with Scrofula for 19 years; the pain it gave me no mortal man knows. I was in agony all of the time. I used to think if I did not use every remedy, and let any pass, that was the very one to cure me, but at last this agent appeared in your great medicine, and am most happy to state your remedies have done the work for me. It is the great blessing, and I am now as free from the disease as I was before I was taken with it.

(Signed) JOHN C. DAVIS.

Witness: J. C. MEDIA, J. P.

CRAVEN Co., October 13, 1881.

PROF. WM. H. MOORE—Dear Sir.—This is what I have to say: I have been suffering with a very large sore on the back of my neck. I suffered, oh! how I suffered; the pain it gave me no mortal man can tell. For 7 years I was in this condition; could not even rest on my knees to pray; had to sit up in my chair. My brethren, to whom I belonged, tried every [illegible] that was around, but found no relief. After seeing your circulars it was decided by the Ministry of the part Dr. Wm. H. Moore. I thought I would try once more. I did so, and can say on my knees now in good order. It has gone entirely and I am now well as ever.

MRS. ELIZABETH KENNEDY.

NEW BERNE, N. C., Aug. 27, 1881.

PROF. W. H. MOORE—Dear Sir.—Your Indian Panacea is not a good medicine to sell; one box cures the many people I recommend it to. I have sold a great deal and my family are using it. I have recommended a great many to try it, my neighbors have been cured from the same box to my knowledge.
